FORWARD MOTION: GOVERNANCE HIGHLIGHTS

OCTOBER 2018

https://apps.arc.losrios.edu/igor

Want more details?

What Happened in the Councils?

EXECUTIVE LEADERSHIP TEAM (ELT)

• Discussed the Los Rios Online Consortium concept proposal.
• Discussed how technology will impact the college's efforts to simplify the "front door" for new students.
• Discussed ARC's midterm accreditation report.

STUDENT SUCCESS COUNCIL (SSC)

• Discussed two potential new project teams: enrollment management & educational master plan.
• Discussed the concept of resource panels, individuals or groups who would provide expertise for teams and councils.

INSTITUTIONAL EFFECTIVENESS COUNCIL (IEC)

• Moving forward with Integrated Planning Improvement, which includes program review and annual unit planning.
• Getting input on midterm accreditation report.
• Moving forward on data dashboard with hopes for spring 2019 rollout.

OPERATIONS COUNCIL (OC)

• Moving forward with construction design guidelines as part of facilities master planning.
• Moving forward with planning for the Wellness Center, including space and service needs, focused on providing additional services starting Jan 2019.
• Continuing discussion about campus wayfinding.

What are we working on?

SUPPORTING GOVERNANCE

• Make plans now to attend Spring 2019 Convocation (Friday, Jan. 18, 2019). Convocation will feature updates from all seven current project teams.
• The college is looking at new project teams in Spring.
• Want to know the latest? Make sure to visit the Institutional Governance Online Repository (IGOR) at https://apps.arc.losrios.edu/igor. IGOR provides timely access to meeting agendas, notes, rosters, templates and other governance documents.

What's Next?

• The college is moving forward with its midterm accreditation report. The IEC has developed a draft report and input is being sought from constituent groups. The draft report was presented to the ELT on Nov. 5. The IEC hopes to approve the draft Nov 19; it will then go to the ELT for approval. The District Accreditation Coordinating Committee is expected to review all four colleges' draft reports in early December.